

Location & Directions

The Isle of Bute is situated in Scotland's Firth of Clyde to the north of Arran, and is easily accessible by regular ferry services from the mainland.

The principal route to the island is by car & passenger ferry from Wemyss Bay. The crossing takes half an hour with sailings every 45 mins at peak times. Wemyss Bay can be reached by car or train.

The flat is situated in Castle Street next to Trinity Church. On leaving the pier go straight ahead up High Street passing the Castle on the right and take the first turning on the left into Castle Street. The flat is towards the end of this street on the right.

Other Useful Information

Rothesay has a wide variety of shops including a Coop.

There are a wide range of leisure activities available on the island. These include golfing, bowling, fishing, horse-riding, cycling, swimming and walking. Mount Stuart House is very popular with tours of the magnificent house and walks in the gardens. There is a local history Museum 2 minutes walk from the flat and the Swimming pool, Playing Fields and Park is a short distance away. The tourist office at the Discovery Centre will be able to supply a comprehensive list of activities and events.
